SPRING FEVER BIKE RACES A HIT!

June 8th marked our 1st Annual Spring Fever bike race at the HyLife Back Forty! Over 70 racers gathered for a fun-filled day of competition and comradery.

The race served as a U13 & U15 Qualifier for the Manitoba Summer Games that are being held in Dauphin this August.

Congratulations to all the participants & winners. Good luck in Dauphin!

Thank you to all the volunteers that helped make the event a success!

TAXES BILLS ARE COMING SOON!

Your 2024 tax bill will be in your mailbox by mid July.

Payments must be received by:
September 27 @ 4:00pm

STREET UPDATES:

- Yes - the two worst blocks will soon be repaved! Tenders for the replacement of a block on both Hamilton and Mill Streets have been awarded - work will begin soon!
- Approx 1000 potholes ranging in size from a shoe to a small truck tire, have been filled in June (with 6 days of downtime due to weather, etc)! The "puker" fills holes & cracks with an emulsion blend of oil mixed with small stones.
- Other concrete repairs and paving projects have been awarded and are now underway.

SAFETY TIPS TO

PREVENT KITCHEN FIRES

- 1 Prep and clean your equipment
- 2 Make sure your smoke detectors and alarms are working
- 3 Don't overload your outlets
- 4 Never leave the kitchen unattended while you are cooking
- 5 Keep flammable objects away from the stove, oven and any other hot surfaces
- 6 Clean your range hood regularly, grease builds up fast!
